J-Serve: April 13, 2008

J-Serve, the National Day of Jewish Youth Service, is a program created by teens for teens. J-Serve provides Jewish participants with the opportunity to fulfill age-old Jewish values. By engaging in community service, J-Serve participants are fulfilling the ideals of; gemilut chasadim, acts of lovingkindness; tzedakah, just and charitable giving; and tikkun olam, the idea that Jews are duty bound to help fix a broken world.

Get your group involved in J-Serve this year! The Partnership for Jewish Learning and Life is trying help organize ten or more projects for MetroWest teens that day. Any project that addresses a communal need, involves Jewish learning and includes 12 or more MetroWest teens will get the following support:

- A $75 mini grant from The Partnership for Jewish Learning and Life to help defray the costs of materials and transportation.
- Customized preparatory and reflective materials created specifically for your group.
- Free consultation to help you design the project that's right for your group and our community.
- Promotion of your group's project in the New Jersey Jewish News and on our website.
